PRESS RELEASE
(available for immediate release)

Best Lawyers, the oldest and most respected peer-review publication in the legal profession, has named David H. Marsh as the “Birmingham Best Lawyers Personal Injury Litigation - Plaintiffs Lawyer of the Year” for 2012.

After more than a quarter of a century in publication, Best Lawyers is designating “Lawyers of the Year” in high-profile legal specialties in large legal communities. Only a single lawyer in each specialty in each community is being honored as the “Lawyer of the Year”.

According to Best Lawyers, the lawyers being honored as “Lawyers of the Year” have received particularly high ratings in their surveys by earning a high level of respect among their peers for their abilities, professionalism, and integrity.

David H. Marsh is the founding partner of the law firm Marsh, Rickard & Bryan, P.C., in Birmingham. The nine-lawyer firm provides aggressive representation in practice areas such as personal injury, trucking litigation, defective products and business disputes.

Marsh has been practicing law more than 25 years. He is a graduate of Auburn University and Cumberland School of Law. He is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates and a Past President of the Alabama Association for Justice. He is a member of the Inner Circle of Advocates, an invitation-only group, limited to 100 lawyers in the United States. To qualify, members must have tried at least 50 personal injury jury trials and obtained at least three verdicts in excess of one-million dollars, or one verdict in excess of ten million dollars. Marsh has done both.
