I was reminded of this recently when I received this note from James Strupp of the Federal Office of the Public Defender:

A far easier and more direct way to do this, in my view, is to create a new PDF from "multiple files", even if you are just extracting pages from one file.

Doh! That's a great idea! Jame even sent along his detailed instructions. I've added some screen captures and additional detail of my own.

Read on to learn about this alternate method to extract pages.
